Start your Christmas with English Baroque Choir

This year we showcase music for the season of Advent, including the ever-popular Es ist ein Ros' entsprungen, Jacob's ladder and Mendelssohn's How lovely are the messengers.

Our carols include arrangements by David Willcocks and John Rutter, a traditional song from Poland, and of course audience favourites to sing. We end with Bob Chilcott's entertaining take on The twelve days of Christmas.

Mulled wine and mince pies are also on the menu.
